

Patrick Wood, Research Fellow, Freedom Advocates

Patrick Wood is publisher of The August Forecast & Review and editor of the weekly newsletter Findings & Forecasts. He has studied elite globalization policies since the late 1970's, when he partnered with the late Antony C. Sutton to co-author Trilaterals Over Washington, Volumes I and II. Since then, he has been acknowledged as one of the leading experts on the global elite, their organizations and their processes intended to create a "New World Order."

An economist by education, a financial analyst and writer by profession and an American Constitutionalist by choice, Wood has deep historical insights into the modern attacks on sovereignty, property rights and personal freedom. Such attacks are epitomized by implementation of U.N. policies such as Agenda 21, Sustainable Development.

Wood is a frequent speaker and guest on radio shows around the nation. Current work involves Transhumanism, Technocracy, and how the Christian Church at large is being drawn away from Jesus Christ into a futuristic cult that promises a new race of humans.
